Hi Angela,

Thanks for your letter. I'm glad you're enjoying the last days of your holiday in Spain.

Now, it's only a few days before my family move to a new house. My younger brother is quite unhappy about this change, but I feel excited. I'll finally have my own room! In fact, there'll be even more changes in family life. My brother starts school this September and he's a little afraid. He's not sure he'll make new friends easily. My older sister, Susan, won't live with us anymore. She's going to university in Manchester in October, so she'll live there. My parents want her to stay with our aunt, but Susan plans to live with her friends. At the moment, she's having an argument with my parents about that. I think they'll agree to give her the money to live with her friends. My mum says that she's tired of staying at home. She's a nurse and she hopes she'll get a job in the big hospital near our new house.

OK, I have to finish now.

Write back soon,

Juliette
